Verse 1

Compassion lives within my heart
It walks with me through each day's part
A gentle smile warms every heart
A kind word lets the blossoms roll

One act of good within a glance
Can ease another's circumstance
The love within calls me to care
And joy shall bloom from everywhere

Compassion is the love I bear
It blooms within my heart each day
The fairest grace of life I wear
I shall not throw this path away

Verse 3

Compassion is my heart's pure light
Soft as one's gaze, so warm, so bright
It speaks with truth from heart to heart
It brings me peace and makes me whole

In countless ways our love may show
Each seed of good we help to grow
Together sharing love's delight
The world shall shine with gentle light

Compassion is the love I bear
It blooms within my heart each day
The fairest grace of life I wear
I shall not throw this path away

Compassion is the love I bear,
It blooms within my heart always
The fairest grace of life I wear
I shall not throw this path away

Compassion is the Love I bear
